

Emmanuel Rutagengwa's Brief Profile:

Mr. Emmanuel Rutagengwa, is Senior Transport Economist and is currently the Head, Transport Policy & Planning at the Central Corridor Transit Transport Facilitation Agency based in Dar es Salaam since 2010. For the past 13 years, he has been leading implementation of harmonized transit transport policies and regulations by the five member States of the Central Corridor; Enhancement of policy harmonization between CCTTFA and other regional organizations having similar mandates as well as maintaining a transport data-base to aid planning & policy formation.

As Head of Planning, he has overseen major transit trade and transport facilitation initiatives along the Central Corridor in the East African region including leading the development of the new CCTTFA Five Year 2021-2025 Strategic Planning that is under implementation.

Prior to joining the Central Corridor; Emmanuel worked with the Private Sector Federation of Rwanda for 3 years, where he led research & Policy which greatly contributed to business reforms and trade across borders in Rwanda and within the East African region. Emmanuel, also founded DR Consulting Ltd, a Research & Management Consulting firm, for which he was the first lead Consultant and specialized in providing high quality consultancy services in transport and trade logistics. Emmanuel Rutagengwa, has a long experience in both public and private sector in the East African region. He has spearheaded trade and policy advocacy, conducted diagnostic studies on trade logistics in the East African Region and serves on key trade and transport-related committees within the EAC and COMESA sub-regions. He has a cumulative high-level experience of more than 20 years.